C ¹⁶ For you have no delight in sacrifice;

GOSPEL: Matthew 13: 44-49

⁴⁴ "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. ⁴⁵ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; ⁴⁶ on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it. ⁴⁷ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; ⁴⁸ when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. ⁴⁹ So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

P We pray for the church, the world, and all those in need.

A brief silence.

P We say we desire to know your will, O Lord, but so often we get in our own way, allowing doubts, cares and distractions to derail us. Turn us again to the path which leads to life and bring forth your good fruits in us. God of harvest,

C Hear our prayer.

P As seeds sown by a hopeful farmer thrive or die according to how they are cultivated, so your creatures—both human and animal—require a stable, enriching environment in which to prosper. May we be part of the solution to problems we have helped cause on this planet, taking responsibility and making amends for the damage we have done. God of harvest,

C Hear our prayer.

P As we remember the life of Martin Luther King, Jr. we give you thanks for all who were bold to speak and act on behalf of justice and truth. Continue to raise up new voices for a new era, where difficult truths still need to be spoken. God of harvest,

C Hear our prayer.

P From a tiny seed a mighty mustard plant grows. May our kindness be the seeds from which healing springs, as we tenderly care for all your children in need. We lift up this day especially those we remember in our hearts. God of harvest,

C Hear our prayer.

P For all the saints who shone their lights rather than hiding them, we give you thanks, O Lord. May we follow their example and share in their heavenly portion. God of harvest,

C Hear our prayer.

Here other petitions may be offered. Together we pray

C Lord, help us your believers become disciples who: love unconditionally; listen compassionately; speak truthfully; act justly; endure patiently; forgive mercifully; give generously; serve selflessly; invite constantly; pray fervently; witness unashamedly; and live worthily.

P Into your hands we commend our prayers, nurturing God, knowing that you are trustworthy and will answer. For the sake of Jesus Christ we pray, Amen.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Communion is open to all baptized believers who know Jesus as Savior and seek to live with him as Lord of all areas of life. It is served by intinction. You receive the wafer in your hand and dip it in the chalice of wine or the glass with white grape juice. Those who do not commune may come forward for a blessing. Simply complete a slip found in the pew box and place it in the offering. Consider the options on reverse side as to how you may serve this congregation.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

C Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

THE SEASON OF EPIPHANY

The Christian church year begins before the new year, in late November or early December, with the season of Advent, which means preparation for the coming of Christ. This is followed by the season of Christmas, celebrating the birth of the Savior, Jesus.

Following Christmas is Epiphany, which celebrates the light of Christ coming into the world. The liturgical colors of Epiphany are green and gold. Any similarity to a football team's colors is entirely by coincidence!!! 😊

My brother was diagnosed with cirrhosis of the liver several years ago, in his early 40's. His diagnosis wasn't good, and he had to be alcohol free for a year before he could be put at the bottom of the transplant list. We were all heart-broken, but we began to pray...He joined AA, and for a year, struggled with the symptoms of liver disease, constantly having to get treatment for fluid retention. Still, we prayed for help. Then, one day shortly after he was added at the bottom of the transplant list, he called and said they'd found cancer in his liver. At first, we were devastated, but then he shared that this diagnosis enabled him to be moved up in the list for a transplant! I got a call from him one afternoon, telling me he was on his way to the hospital, they'd received a liver for him. And, when that liver may not have been perfect, they told us that they had 2 donors that day, both with livers that would be compatible! When they completed the transplant, they were amazed at the poor condition of the liver, stating that they wondered how he had survived for that long! He made it through the surgery, and after several months of struggles with infection in the surgery site, he was back to work, and is doing fantastic! Amazing how our prayers were answered with what seemed to be a scary cancer diagnosis, but instead it was a way to get him on the transplant list in time to be saved.
